

Derwentwater - Queen of the English Lakes

Derwentwater is the third largest of the Cumbrian Lakes and is three miles long and one and a half miles wide. At its deepest point it measures seventy five feet although its average depth is fifteen feet.

Derwentwater is unusual in that it has four islands: Derwent, Lords, Rampsholme and St. Herbert's, dotted along its length. Derwent Isle was once the home of German miners working in the area and St. Herbert's Island was named after the saint who lived there as a hermit.

Our launches sail from Keswick, calling at six landing stages around Derwentwater on request (please stand on the end of the landing stage and wave if you require launch to stop).

1. Keswick

Our launches depart from this stage. Cabin cruisers and rowing boats for hire.

2. Ashness Gate

Ashness Bridge, Surprise View and Watendlath are all well worth the walk from this landing stage.

3. Lodore

Lodore waterfalls and a good selection of hotels and places to eat and drink in the Borrowdale Valley are all within walking distance. Plattyplus Canoes are based at this landing stage.

4. High Brandelhow

For a relaxing walk through Low Manesty Woods.

5. Low Brandelhow

Brandelhow Park is a delightful mixture of woodland, fields and wetland, which provides an excellent habitat for local wildlife.

6. Hawes End

A very popular landing stage for walkers who head for Catbells and the beautiful Newlands Valley.

7. Nichol End

Marina and a ten minute stroll from the picturesque Portinscale village.

Evening Cruises

This memorable tour on Derwentwater lasts for about one hour and the price includes a glass of wine or a soft drink plus a commentary by our well known local guide.
